

Gregg Roberts

Artist

Award winning Sailor's Valentine artist, Gregg Roberts creates works of maritime art in his studio and gallery on Cape Cod.

Utilizing a broad selection of natural shell colors assembled over a lifetime of seashell collecting and flat rope knotting painstakingly made by the artist's hand, he creates his imaginative Sailor's Valentines.

His unique contemporary style pays homage to traditional Barbadian shell-craft, but also incorporates techniques that result in intricate three dimensional elements in his designs.

Gregg's work can be found in cultural, art and maritime institutions. He is available for commissioned and restoration projects, lectures and private or group instruction.

MY ART

PLEASE DON'T THINK I'M SCATTERED
I SEE WHAT OTHERS PASS
A TINY SHELL, A BIT OF TWINE
SOME OCEAN TUMBLED GLASS

MY INSPIRATION COMES TO ME
FROM SOMEWHERE VERY DEEP
I LONG TO LET DESIGNS UNFOLD
AT TIMES, I HARDLY SLEEP

MY BRAIN INSTRUCTS THESE GNARLY HANDS
THEY KNOW JUST WHAT TO DO
WITH LITTLE PILES OF OCEAN THINGS
AND LITTLE DABS OF GLUE

FOUND PIECES OF THE STUFF OF LIFE
MY IDEAS COALESCE
AND IN DUE TIME YOU WILL OBSERVE
THE BEAUTY FROM THE MESS

IT'S LONELY WHERE I GO SOMETIMES
THERE'S HARDLY ROOM FOR TWO
MY ART WILL TELL YOU WHERE I'VE BEEN
AND ALL THAT I'VE BEEN THROUGH

SO, PLEASE DON'T TRY TO FOLLOW ME
FOR I AM LOST, I'M SURE
IT'S ALL ABOUT THE JOURNEY, FRIEND
A PROCESS, I ENDURE

I HOPE THAT YOU ENJOY MY WORK
AND SHARE ALL THAT I SEE
STAND BACK IN WIDE-EYED WONDER
AS
GOD SHOWS HIS PLAN FOR ME
